8. Communications from the Mayor and Aldermen

Mayor Wilson made the following announcements:

- Commended Superintendent Maitland and his employees for getting a 100 on the water report. Maitland added that he couldn't do it without good workers.
- Robertson County Clerk will no longer be at City Hall effective 04/1/13.
- Recycling bins will be removed because of misuse by citizens. One recycling bin will be kept for City use.

9. Reports from Committees and Department Heads

Alderman Dugger reported on the Committee that was appointed last month to study tornado sirens and possible alternatives for alerting citizens during bad weather. Aldermen Dugger, Stroup, and DeLong met and came up with the idea of providing citizens with the opportunity to buy weather radios at the City cost. The committee is recommending to the Board that the City have a weather alert radio where the citizens could come to City Hall and have their radio programmed. For those that cannot afford it, the City will be asking local businesses to sponsor radios for those citizens.
