8. Communications from the Mayor and Aldermen

Mayor Dawson had the following communications:

- CGI Communications will be producing a series of videos highlighting different aspects of the City. This is being done at no cost to the City. The videos will be linked to the City of Greenbrier's website. Hopefully, the City will be able to attract businesses and residents.
- A thank you to the Police and Fire Dept. for their help with the 4th of July Parade.
- The Christmas Parade is scheduled for December 12, 2015. Snowbird had confirmed that he will be here. Also, there will be a contest with prizes for the best floats.

Alderman DeLong has received many complaints regarding the restriction of the sale of fireworks. When he voted during the first reading, he thought it was restricting the size of the lots not eliminating the sale of all fireworks.

Alderman Dorris has answered a lot of questions regarding the firework ordinance.
