- b. No longer accept vouchers for Water and Sewer Bills

It was moved by Stroup, seconded by Dorris, to approve.

Discussion: Alderman Dorris asked what the vouchers were. Superintendent Maitland explained: if people can't afford their water bill, they will go to different charities and receive vouchers for their bill. The charity will write a check for the bill and mail to the City. It could take 4 to 6 weeks for the City to receive the money and by then the water bill is 3 months behind.
